WELCOME!

We are so glad to have you worshipping with us this morning. It is our hope that you will have the opportunity to engage and grow here at Haven.

We live in a world that is based on scarcity. It seems we never have enough—not enough time, not enough money, not enough knowledge, not enough volunteers. We in the church, however, serve a God who has more than enough and is more than enough. And our God has entrusted resources to us. What are some of those resources? And what are we doing with those resources?
